

The Center for Faith and Community Health
Transformation

Kirsten Peachey

Director, Congregational Health Partnerships

Co-Director, The Center for Faith and Community Health Transformation

Advocate Health Care

Interfaith Health Program

Institute for Public Health and Faith Collaboration

REACH 2010

- Key Partners
 - Chicago Department of Public Health
 - Neighborhoods Initiative at the University of Illinois at Chicago
 - Advocate Health Care invited as a partner to engage faith communities

HEALTHY

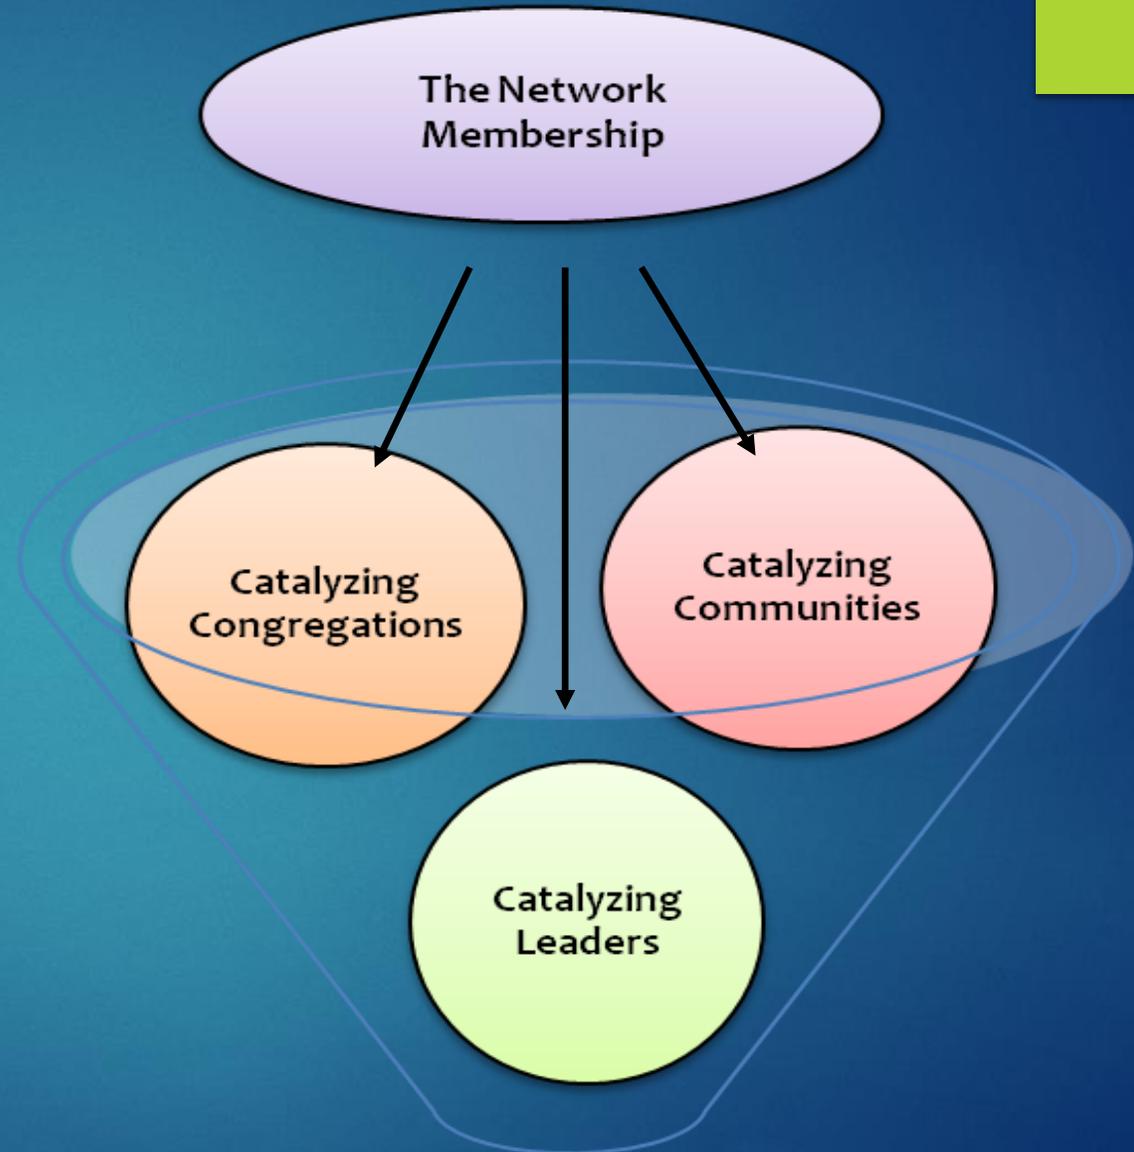

CHICAGO

CHICAGO DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH

I-PLAN Integration

Merger

The Faith and Health Consortium
and
The Center

How We Lead

▶ Visioning

- ▶ Moral Imagination
- ▶ Spirit Power
- ▶ Love

▶ Convening

- ▶ Trauma and Resilience
- ▶ Mental Health
- ▶ Research

▶ Hosting

▶ Practicing

Trauma Informed Congregations Network

Key Work Areas

- ▶ Identifying what already exists
- ▶ Common Curriculum--Risking Connection in Faith Communities—
Teach the Facilitator Cohort
 - ▶ Chicago Presbytery
 - ▶ Northern Illinois Conference—United Methodist Church
 - ▶ Advocate Children's Hospital
 - ▶ Lurie Children's Hospital
 - ▶ Interfaith Mental Health Coalition
 - ▶ Unitarian Universalists
 - ▶ The Urban Resilience Network
 - ▶ Chicago Board of Rabbis
 - ▶ Restorative Justice Network

- ▶ Expand Restorative Justice Practices

- ▶ Build our Community of Practice

- ▶ Sacred Wounds: A Path to Healing from Spiritual Trauma

Health Ministry Development: Creating a Culture of Health

Community of Practice

Faith & Public Health Institute: Aligning Faith and Public Health

Identifying Faith and Community Assets

