

HEALTH AND MEDICINE DIVISION

Roundtable on Population Health Improvement

Economic Systems as a Structural Driver of Population Health: An Introduction

March 18, 2024

AGENDA

webcast link

This roundtable conversation with experts will launch a year-long exploration of economic systems in the context of:

- Narrative shift and culture change
- Working together across sectors and disciplines
- Governance and democracy

11:00am ET Welcome

Ana Diez Roux, roundtable co-chair, Distinguished University Professor of Epidemiology, Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics, and Director, Urban Health Collaborative, Drexel University

11:10 am ET Brief remarks

Darrick Hamilton, Henry Cohen Professor of Economics and Urban Policy, The New School

Amanda Janoo, Knowledge & Policy Lead, Wellbeing Economy Alliance

Nancy Krieger, professor of social epidemiology, Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences, Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health

11:20 am ET Questions and Discussion

Speakers and members of the Roundtable on Population Health Improvement

12:50 pm ET Closing remarks

Mary Pittman, roundtable co-chair, Emerita President and CEO, Public Health Institute

1:00 pm ET Adjourn