AN INSTRUMENT NATURE CAN PLAY

Data, Sound, and the Work of Imagination in Science

Jewel

Prof. Greg Niemeyer

Dr. Chelle Gentemann

7:00 PM ET

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25, 2026

In Person at the National Academy of Sciences Building
2101 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC
Online via Zoom and Livestream

Scientific breakthroughs rarely start with answers. They start when we imagine things we can't yet see. In this keynote, join singer Jewel as she shares her latest work and how her collaboration with open data from NASA, NOAA, USGS, and NSF, made possible through a shared commitment to open science, comes together to show how creativity helps people connect more deeply to their environment by making science more visible, tangible, and participatory.

7:00 PM      Keynote Public Lecture in the Kavli Auditorium

IMPORTANT NOTES

Presenters:

- Please do not include ITAR-controlled or sensitive information in your presentation.
- A National Academies Committee staff member will ask you to sign a form before the meeting allowing us permission to use your likeness and presentation for our livestream video, which will be posted on our Committee website after the meeting. Please get in touch with us before the meeting if you have any concerns about this usage.

Board Members and Presenters:

- Remote access will be provided through Zoom. This will allow you to participate in the meeting even if you can't be physically present.
- Please note that Zoom allows audio and any materials exchanged or viewed during the session to be recorded and shared.
- By participating in this activity, you agree to let your voice, likeness, and any materials you provide be recorded for use and dissemination. This includes any language, format, or media now known or later devised.
- You release the National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine from any and all claims, liability, or damages arising from any such use. If you disagree, please do not join the session.

Members of the General Public:

- Remote access will be provided through a live stream on Vimeo. This will also be publicly available and posted on the Committee website. You do not need to register.

Thank you all for your cooperation, and we look forward to a successful meeting.
